

Lumberman's Terminology www.deckmaster.com 800-869-1375
 "Nominal thickness", as related to top fastening, has no consequence but "Screwing Up" with the Deckmaster system has length limitations. The board's "true thickness" determines which kit to use.
 Because composites are extremely dense, as hard as mahogany, there would be no significant reduction in uniform uplift values using the 10 x 1" screw for this application. Deckmaster has the highest uplift values of any hidden fastener system.
